DGA Winner Tees Off On Golf Movie

San Diego, California – DGA award winner Drew Ann Rosenberg has signed on to direct Angelic Picture’s comedy feature “Parfection – The Golf Movie.”

To be shot this August in San Diego, “Parfection” revolves around two college friends hustling golf and trying to launch their own business. Losing an extreme bet they must play the golf game of their lives to save their future, regain their dignity, win back the girls of their dreams, and become the men they were meant to be all along.

Rosenberg is repped by Daniel Sladek Entertainment Corp.

Coming off directing the feature “Follow the Prophet” starring David Conrad, Jon Diehl, Diane Venora, Tom Noonan, and Annie Burgstede and the Fox series “Saints & Sinners”, Rosenberg turns her production expertise towards the golf course. Rosenberg won an LA Emmy for Daybreak, a short doc she wrote and directed. Before becoming a director, Rosenberg had a highly successful career as a First Assistant Director, receiving two DGA award nominations and one win. She has worked on over 50 movies, among them, “LA Confidential”, “Philadelphia”, “Misery”, “The Bad Lieutenant”, “Reversal of Fortune”, “Running on Empty”, “Along Came Polly”, “Ghostbusters II” and “Friends with Money”, as well as 8 features for HBO.

“Parfection” is the first title in a series of Style & Attitude films to be produced by Angelic Pictures.
